

COMMISSION TO CONVEY TODAY

Interstate Commerce Commission Officials Will Take Up Rate Cases.

SESSION IS AT A HOTEL

ATLANTIC COAST LINE MAN MAY TELL ABOUT WATER RATES.

About three days, according to the attorneys for both sides of the case, will be necessary for the completion of the present hearing in the Salt Lake freight rate case, which will be resumed this morning before Commissioner E. E. Clark of the Interstate Commerce commission.

On account of the desire of some of those whose testimony was wanted in the case to get home, testimony was taken at the Knutsford hotel Saturday at a brief session, at which Attorney C. C. Day and S. H. Babcock, for the local traffic bureau; Judge F. C. Dillard of the Union Pacific and others were present.

Those whose testimony was taken were P. A. Wann, general traffic manager of the Salt Lake Route, in charge of the freight and passenger business, who was questioned by Attorney W. R. Kelly, general counsel for this road, and C. S. Free, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, both of whom left the city Saturday night. This testimony will be put in today and the railroad will continue the introduction of other testimony.

The hearing this morning will start with the cross-examination of W. W. Luce, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific, whose direct examination was finished just before adjournment of the hearing Friday afternoon until this morning. It was announced yesterday that the Union Pacific will have but a few witnesses to present, following Mr. Luce, the intention being to finish the case for that road by this afternoon at the latest. The testimony introduced by counsel for the Union Pacific will be followed by that from the other roads which are joined in the proceedings, among those probably the Denver & Rio Grande, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific and the Missouri Pacific. The case of the Denver & Rio Grande will be handled by E. N. Clark for that road; the Missouri Pacific testimony by James C. Jeffery, counsel for the Gould system, and the Rock Island by E. B. Felice, counsel for that road.

Among the testimony to be presented today will probably be that of L. J. Spence, connected with the Atlantic coast lines, who is expected to testify in regard to water shipments from New York to San Francisco. It is believed some time may be consumed in the cross-examination of some of the witnesses, so that the hearing of the testimony from the roads which are to follow the Union Pacific probably will take two days.

Judge Dillard of the Harriman lines, who has taken the lead since the start of the hearing, for the railroads, intended to remain here until the end of the hearing; Judge N. H. Loomis of Omaha and others who were associated with Judge Dillard last week already having gone. Judge Dillard had hoped to be in Spokane for the start of the rate hearing in that city next Wednesday, but will not be able to do so, if the local case takes as much time as is expected.

Cotton at Spokane.

W. W. Cotton, general attorney for the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, who is said to be one of the best posted men on rates in the country, will be at Spokane, to look after the hearing, and Judge Dillard probably will join him after the close of the Salt Lake hearing.

Commissioner C. A. Frouty of the Interstate Commerce commission, who was here with Commissioner Clark until Friday afternoon, when he left for Portland, will sit in the Spokane hearing, and it is said that he will remain in that city afterwards, not being expected in Salt Lake for the argument on the case, about Oct. 29, when at least four of the seven members of the commission will be here.

When asked for his opinion of the hearing thus far, Attorney C. C. Day, who is conducting the case for the traffic bureau of the Commercial club of this city, said he thought the unravelling of the mass of figures presented will make a strong showing for the local traffic club.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF $75 FROM TRUNK

Horace Pratter, proprietor of a chili parlor at 96 Commercial street, had Edward Sullivan arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of having stolen $75 from a trunk belonging to Pratter. Edward Frost, also alleged to be implicated, escaped.

Wallace was a waiter at the chili shop. At the police station he declared he had seen Frost rummaging in the trunk, and when he looked in after Frost had left the money was missing. Pratter avers that Frost and Wallace are "pals," and that Frost had the $75 which Wallace helped him to steal. The money was the receipts of Saturday's business.

This MAY be one of the days you can afford to neglect the want ads—but it probably is not.

JOHN R. BOWDLE LAD AT REST

Impressive Funeral Service Is Held in Methodist Episcopal Church.

While the solemn and beautiful strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," sung by Mrs. A. S. Peters, helped to console bereaved relatives, Judge John R. Bowdle was laid at rest in Mount Olivet cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were impressive and attended by a large concourse of friends. The rendition of the old hymn by Mrs. Peters brought tears to many eyes.

At 3 o'clock relatives and friends assembled in the First Methodist Episcopal church, where the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Francis Burgette Short, delivered the sermon, and the Rev. W. M. Faden of the First Presbyterian church offered prayer and read from the Scriptures. The pastor pronounced an eloquent eulogy and told of the veneration in which Judge Bowdle was held by all who had known him. The church was filled with friends of the late Judge Bowdle.

After the sermon a quartet sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and Mrs. Peters sang a solo, "Saved by Grace."

A large concourse of mourners were in the cortege to Mount Olivet cemetery, where the usual rites of the Methodist church were observed. The pallbearers were C. M. Morris, L. N. Bailey, Frederick Eberhardt, T. A. Dix, W. D. Gaby and E. McCarlick.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

DR. YOUNG WILL INSPECT SHEEP

State Veterinarian Believes the Flockmasters Need Not Expect an Epidemic.

Dr. A. C. Young, state veterinarian, will leave this morning for Strawberry valley to inspect the sheep on the summer ranges, with a view of detecting any symptoms of necrobacillosis which may exist. According to reports several flocks in that region have been infected and another outbreak such as that in the vicinity of Heber is feared unless immediate steps are taken.

Dr. Young said yesterday that the outbreak at Heber City was much improved, with every indication of the quarantined herds being released in time to make the wintering before the cold weather sets in. In his opinion the sheepmen have little cause for alarm, there being nothing resembling an epidemic in any part of the sheep ranges.

Dr. Young, together with Dr. Murray of the United States bureau of animal industry, is planning to see to it that every flock of sheep leaving the summer ranges for the winter is thoroughly inspected and made as free from sheep diseases as possible, before being allowed to trail. In spite of the scare at Heber City and at other points in the state, the average health of sheep and cattle in Utah is said to be excellent.

COUNCILMEN TO BE AT PRIMARIES

Solons So Busy Trying to Retain Jobs They Have No Time for Duties.

Owing to the fact that more than half the members of the city council will be at ward primaries tonight seeking re-nomination by the American party, there will be no meeting of the city council. The city solons will not get together Tuesday night, either, for that is the night of the city convention of the American party and less than a quorum could be brought together for a council meeting. The meeting will probably be held Wednesday night.

Last Thursday night the councilmen were busy at the primaries, when delegates were named for the city convention, and so no committee work was done. This left practically nothing for the council Wednesday night but new business, and the councilmen will have their hands full the night following if they are not still too busy discussing party affairs.

The board of public works is in the same predicament. Efforts have been made for more than a week to hold a meeting of the board, but the members could not be brought together. This was partly due to the visit of President Taft and partly through politics. It is likely, however, that the meeting will be held next Friday night, when contracts will be let for the three conduit crossings for City creek, on North Temple street at West Temple, First West and Second West streets.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Arrangements have been made for a gymnasium class at the Y. M. C. A. once a week, provided a class of one hundred can be secured. Enrollment will be made at once with Miss Mabel Johnson, general secretary, at the Brooks arcade office.

Friday evening the first social of the year was held at the Brooks arcade, and a general good time was enjoyed by all present. A descriptive talk regarding the Yosemite and Grand canyon was given by Mrs. Humphreys, and the Yellowstone National park by Mrs. Coray. Light refreshments were served.

On Sunday, Oct. 3, vesper services will be resumed for the fall and winter. Miss Margaret Summich of Trayer, Ia., will have charge of the service. Special music is being planned.

Patronage of the lunch room is increasing every day, averaging between sixty and seventy for the last week, and we soon hope to have the number reach one hundred.

Miss Myrta Robinson, associate secretary, has been sick at her home in Montana, and has been compelled to give up her work in Salt Lake. As yet her successor has not been chosen.

Arrangements have been completed for classes in French and German, and enrollment should be made at once.

The study classes in theosophy are meeting each Monday evening in the basement of the Unitarian hall at 8 o'clock. These meetings are open to everyone. There is one class for beginners and one for those who already know something of theosophy. No charge is made.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank my friends for the many kind acts shown me during the sickness and death of my brother, Robert J. McDowell; also, for the beautiful floral offerings.
